

PROFESSOR DAVID MORTON CBE

Emeritus Professor, University of Birmingham, School of Biosciences

David's interests include the recognition and assessment of pain, suffering, distress and lasting harm in all sentient animal species, and the ethical challenges that brings when welfare is compromised from particular uses of animals. He is a Foundation Diplomate of the European College of Animal Welfare and Behavioural Medicine, sub-speciality Animal Welfare Science, Ethics and Law.

www.CAWSEL.com

@CAWSEL1
#CAWSEL17